

Execu Proclan

State of Sou

Office Of The

Return to James

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Thomas E. Poe, Jr. has demonstrated this dedication to duty through his endeavors as Law Librarian and Professor at the University of South Dakota School of Law and also in his law practice in Vermillion, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Tim has devoted his life to the betterment of his community through his membership as a Rotarian, his being on the Board of Directors for the South Dakota Arts Council, his being a member of the Vermillion City Council, and through his caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Tim is an avid golfer, even though he's left-handed, and is also known for his stories and anecdotes which he tells with skill and wit; and,

WHEREAS, Tim is closing his law practice and leaving the great State of South Dakota to move to Georgia to be near his daughter, Julie; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Thomas E. Poe's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 23, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join with his friends in wishing him a fond farewell, and wish him luck in his new home.

THOMAS E. POE, JR. DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-First Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazelton
JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE